

Laughing At Tomorrow

H.E.A.T

Listen!
The... keeps telling
Man, I think I'm giving in,
I guess that's what we are!
And since they're headed here
We can't go anywhere
It's been a long time apart!
Bring me one of those,
What are you having?
A bottle blue of cold
What's the chance that
In twenty years or so
We're laughing at tomorrow!

Chorus:
I guess it's in our hearts
To break our bones and fall apart!
I guess it's in our hearts
To make amends and wake-ups call
While laughing at tomorrow.

We all keep dreaming things
Forgetting and forgiving
And in the beauty of the beast.
Let me propose a toast
To what we want the most.
Let's celebrate the endless nights.
With every words you say
Getting older.
With every friends who stays
Getting closer.
In sixty years or so we're laughing at tomorrow.

Chorus: (3x)
I guess it's in our hearts
To break our bones and fall apart!
I guess it's in our hearts
To make amends and wake-ups call
While laughing at tomorrow, oh, oh yeah!
While laughing at tomorrow!
