

We rise!

I've decided to be forever free of your lies
Hear a cry in the night, it's the sound of a raging crowd
Sooner or later you will burn, out of the ashes a brave new world
Something is waiting, something grows, all for one and one for all

It's time to
Rise - no one can make us hide away
Rise - we are the sign in the northern sky
Rise - no one can take our pride away
Rise - we are the sign in the northern sky

We got what it takes, we got what it takes to survive
We'll be indestructible, the indisputable champions of the world
Sooner or later you will burn
Out of the ashes a brave new world

It's time to
Rise - no one can make us hide away
Rise - we are the sign in the northern sky
Rise - no one can take our pride away
Rise - we are the sign in the northern sky

No one can make us hide away
We're rising up, we're here to stay
We are the brave new world

It's time to
Rise - no one can make us hide away
Rise - we are the sign in the northern sky
Rise - no one can take our pride away
Rise - we are the sign in the northern sky
(We are, we are, we are)
We are the sign in the northern sky
(We are, we are, we are)
We are the sign in the northern sky
Rise!
