

We got what we asked for
Then we got something core
We were the kings of the world
But tough luck, haven't you heard

Things ain't pretty
Down in shit city
We're not welcome anymore
Like criminals, animals
Locked down deep underground
We're not welcome anymore

We got some news for you all
This ain't the shit we asked for
We struck a deal with the devil
He said "So long, you're on your own"

Things ain't pretty
Down in shit city
We're not welcome anymore
Like criminals, animals
Locked down deep underground
We're not welcome anymore

My father told me to reach for the sky
We ended up underground

Things ain't pretty
Down in shit city
We're not welcome anymore
Like criminals, animals
Locked down deep underground
We're not welcome anymore
We're not welcome anymore
We're not welcome anymore
