

False Idols

Hacktivist

We see through your disguise
False idols in our eyes
We're stronger, we are the

We ain't gonna lose no sleep if you hate us
Now we're in way too deep on our way up
Think we're gonna stop because a fake don't rate us?
Boris Johnson cunt ain't gonna save us
Keep taxing our wages, we just spit raps in faces
Tryna bridge gaps but we are lab rats in cages
Trapped in, sick without a vaccine
Contagious, so they wanna stay away from us because of our behaviour
Well I don't fucking blame ya 'cause we're not just entertainers (Stay away from the radius)
I spit shrapnel that will give you a face lift
Do you catch my drift? Hacktivist causing a crisis
Let a politician chat shit as I murder the riff

We see through your disguise
False idols in our eyes
We're stronger, we are the

The voice of a generation lost in discrimination
They step to the stage with nothing to say but waste

The voice of a generation lost in discrimination
They step to the stage with nothing to show but fame

Better know we're setting the pace
Everybody wants money, nobody wants change
From council estates on minimum wage
(How the fuck did we get here on the main stage?)
We won't follow mans lane
Clockwork Orange, they can't wash my brain
Think I give a fuck about fame?
I'll be on the road playing shows with my mates
All we need is humanity in this human race
Others see black and white but we see grey
If you read between the lines you can relate
When the kids start shooting at their class mates
And their parents blame GTA
Selling guns in shops was the first mistake
So don't talk to me about fate

We see through your disguise
False idols in our eyes
We're stronger, we are the voice

(The voice of a generation lost in discrimination)
We are the voice
(The voice of a generation lost in discrimination)
We are the voice

The voice of a generation lost in discrimination
They step to the stage with nothing to say but waste

The voice of a generation lost in discrimination

They step to the stage with nothing to show but fame
