Perturbed

Hacride

Obesession, old demons who defeat you I search, greedy for calm, my liberty

Let the amoeba devour you It's your requiem

The racked guided spirit by the past, Voodoed by this pity witch freeze my veins. Ridiculousness This obsession is yours, individual

Invented or hidden, justified or inordinate

Your eyes give away and this secret so well kept This languidness, suffering from hurt you so much These perturbed sensations Macabre mass of my look towards the future

Respect your vision of huminity respect man who regard you
Respect these men who look at you
These memories which spoil life
