

Comfort Zone

Hadise

When love comes around
Flirting up a storm
There's no telling when
The wind will blow

When love comes around
It never comes alone
It comes with a new past
On the people you don't know

When I get in the comfort zone
Still so much young or old
We all have these roads
Some are big, some are small
I'm checking you out

When love comes around
Your world is slowing down
When it's just you and I
And no less is passing by

We belong today
Now I feel, can you feel with you?...

When I get in the comfort zone
Still so much young or old
We all have these roads
Some are big, some are small
I'm checking you out

When I get in the comfort zone
Still so much young or old
We don't know where this goes
Some are big, some are small
I'm checking you out

Look at us now
We both co-cocoon
Look at us now
We both co-cocoon