

Good Morning Baby

Hadise

It's a lovely day

Stared at your face on the pillow
Listening to the ways of your slumber
To watch you sleep is a dream
No doubts will come and ponder

Over the rippled sheets
You're lying there so peacefully
I wish each day anew
To wake up next to you

Good morning baby
Did you sleep okay?
Let's not leave our bed
For a whole day

Face to face in the morning
My first hello is to you
Your drowsy smile and wrinkled eyes
Will get me in the mood

Slept like a newborn baby
With my baby next to me
I'm coiled up into his arms
There's no where I would rather be

Over the rippled sheets
You're lying there so peacefully
I wish each day anew
To wake up next to you

Good morning baby
Did you sleep okay?
Let's not leave our bed
For a whole day

Last night I was so afraid
That you wouldn't stay
Good morning baby
It's a lovely day

I love you, oh I love you
Ooh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

You opened your eyes and smiled
It's the first morning we spent together
Let's just lie here for a while

Good morning baby
Did you sleep okay?
Let's not leave our bed
For a whole day

Last night I was so afraid
That you wouldn't stay
(Good morning baby)

It's a lovely day

Mmm, mmm
