

Men Chase Women Choose

Hadise

(I'm so fine I don't need to chase)
(I don't need to do nothin')
(Girls are comin' at me all the time)

There's something about a man with a boyish grin
That will do it every time for me
There's something about a man who feels good in his skin
When you look in his eyes, they can't be tamed

Ooh baby, why you winding me up?
Why you playing so hard to get?
Whatcha doing there, changing the rules?

Men chase, women choose
There're things you don't and things you do
Men chase, women choose
You're cool but I'm not fooled

Men chase women choose
I'm not gonna crawl for you
Men chase women choose
Not all roads lead to you
Baby, baby, baby, will you come to me?

I don't want a man looking at my shoes
Saying "hey, I got those too" (oh no)
I don't like a man acting like a girl
Looking for a mother in me (no no, oh no)

Ooh baby, why you winding me up?
Why you playing so hard to get?
Whatcha doing there, changing the rules?
Why you playing so hard to get?

Men chase, women choose
There're things you don't and things you do
Men chase, women choose
You're cool but I'm not fooled

Men chase women choose
I'm not gonna crawl for you
Men chase women choose
Not all roads lead to you
Baby, baby, baby, will you come to me?

You need to bring it to get this player to want ya
You need to flaunt your thing and make him hot, yeah
Please please, I'm already weak in the knees
Please please, stop lining me up where

Men chase, women choose
There're things you don't and things you do
Men chase, women choose
You're cool but I'm not fooled

Men chase women choose
I'm not gonna crawl for you (I ain't gonna crawl for you)

Men chase women choose
Not all roads lead to you
