

Loving You Makes Me A Better Man

Hal Ketchum

Loving you makes me a better man
These things I don't know how to do
You make me think I can

I've got a long way to go
But I know what I know like the back of my hand
Loving you makes me a better man

I've been wrong more than I cared to say
Time after time I've been lost
Just couldn't find my way

You shed a light on the path through the night
Leading right to the side where I stand
Loving you makes me a better man

I make mistakes, didn't have what it takes
Just to walk out, leave it alone
I've got a long lot of heartaches that follow me home

Time goes on, I watch it disappear
I've got a mind of my own
Now that I have you near

You came to me and it's easy to see
There's a line that I've crossed in the sand
Loving you makes me a better man
Loving you makes me a better man
