

Desire

Hale

The sun and the moon
The stars and the sky
You take me higher, you light me up
Like it's summer in July

I'll give you the keys
Into my world, few would ever see
Ready to unravel
You make me better
Than I'll ever be

A laugh and a kiss
A toast for the love and the memories we'll make
The waters you inspire, my burning desire, oh

Desire-ire-ire
You're all my desire-ire-ire
The birds and the bees my disease
The rain is on the room
I drifted through it all

I twisted, I turned
To the beat and the sound of your heart
Bewitched by the madness
And sinking into
It took me there, right from the start

A bucket of water
The tides and the waves are getting stronger
Hold on till we part
Be still my heart
I can't wait any longer

A laugh and a kiss
A toast for the love and the memories we'll make
The waters you inspire, my burning desire, oh

Desire-ire-ire
You're all my desire-ire-ire
The birds and the bees my disease
The rain is on the room
I drifted through it all
