

Hello Sunrise

Hale

Oh when you thought that time and tide is not on your side
Don't you try to hide
And oh with this, it sparks a fire deep in your soul
Then you, you start singing now

Hello sunrise, welcome me
With your words and honesty
Open up my eyes and let me see
The hope and dream so far away
Always in my heart you stay
You're always in my mind, every day

Just when you feel, it's hard and ready to give up
You breathe, you stand, you fight
This hope and not by chance
Is sparking up deep in my heart
And I, I start singing now

Hello sunrise, welcome me
With your words and honesty
Open up my eyes and let me see
The hope and dream so far away
Always in my heart you stay
You're always in my mind, every day

Hello sunrise, hello sunrise
Hello sunrise, hello sunrise

Hello sunrise, welcome me
With your words and honesty
Open up my eyes and let me see
The hope and dream so far away
Always in my heart you stay
You're always in my mind, every day
