

Saint or Sinner

Hale

Fast forward; I'm moving forward now
Feel like I'm such a better person now
Been through hell but I'm still up somehow

Saint or sinner, I don't give a damn
Late or never, never the same now
Same now

Doesn't matter who you were
And who you are right now

Please do not
But hate no one
Oh, live your life
Don't change for no one

'Cause every day, every waking harm
Just pass the flame, you feel the truth beyond
But once you scream, now, the colors carry on (ooh)

Saint or sinner, don't you give a damn
Late or never, never the same again
Same again

Doesn't matter who you were
And who you are right now

So please do not
But hate no one
Oh, live your life
Don't change for no one

Please do not
But hate no one
Oh, live your life
