

See You

Hale

Time will heal all the wounds inside
Still everything is bittersweet; tell me why
The flame is burnin' brighter deep inside
Don't forget me

'Cause I still see you
Underneath it all
And I'll be just fine
Holdin' on

I feel that you're just here a while ago
Why do I see your silhouette in every corner
A scar turned out to be a sweet downfall
Can't forget everythin'

Fate and destiny arise once more
What's meant to be, please let it be, it's now or never
The world has changed but I can't seem to Makes no sense, not to me

'Cause I still see you
Underneath it all
And I'll be just fine
Holdin' on
Holdin' on Holdin' on
Holdin' on

Oh, raise me up
Oh, bring me down
Take me where I belong
Oh, truth be told
Please save me now
'Cause I am lost without you

'Cause I still see you
Underneath it all
And I'll be just fine
Holdin' on

Don't forget me
Don't forget me

'Cause I still see you
Underneath it all
And I'll be just fine
Holdin' on
Holdin' on Holdin' on Holdin' on
