

Nothing But Good

Hank Ballard & The Midnighters

You're so pretty and so fine
I wonder will I ever
Make you mine

Things I wanna say
Things I wanna do
Most of all, I wanna
Fall in love with you

And that ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)

I said fall in love with you
Come on over, baby
Have no fear
Tell me, pretty thing
You know I'd love to hear

Tell me that you care
Hold me in your arms
Kiss me sweet and tender
Show me all your charms

That ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)

If I should fall in love with you
Oh, just love me
Each and every day
And I will love you
In the same old way

I will keep you
Here in my heart
We will never
Never, never part

You're so pretty
You're so fine
If I ever make you mine

Things I wanna say
Things I wanna do
Most of all, I wanna
Fall in love with you

And that ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)

If I should fall in love with you
Oh, just love me
Each and every day
And I will love you
In the same old way

I will keep you
Here in my heart
We will never
Never, never part

You're so pretty and so fine
Wonder will I ever
Make you mine

Things I wanna say
Things I wanna do
Most of all, I wanna
Fall in love with you

And that ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)

That ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't (nothing but good)
That ain't nothing (nothing but good)
That ain't nothing (nothing but good)
Nothing but good
