

It Kinda Reminds Me Of Me

Hank Snow

Today I was lonely so I took a walk I happened to glance in a tree
Out on a limb walked one lonely dove it kinda reminded me of me
I looked at the sidewalk as I walked alone we two of a kind I could see
Because it's been walked on the way that I have it kinda reminds me of me
Out on a limb since she left me that day I live in the sweet used-to-be
I've heard it said that a fool never learns it kinda reminds me of me
