

Confidence Man

Hanker

See me praying for God's mercy, See me begging on my knees
See me with my saintly smile, See me crying out my pleas

Give me your faith and you will see, I am the one who holds the key

Hear me preaching about His glory, Mesmerized with my creed
Vow a land of milk and honey, Provide your wealth to sate my greed

Give me your faith and you will see, You're so lucky, can't you see

Cause I'm a confidence man, Yeah! I'm a confidence man
Sure I'm your confidence man, Your confidence man
Believe! Cause I'm your confidence man, Confidence man

Well, well, well

I am your Healer, I will deliver thee, I'm your awaited Saviour
Sacrifice yourselves to me

I change your fate as you can see
I'm so crafty, can't you see

Cause I'm a confidence man, Yeah! I'm a confidence man
Sure I'm your confidence man, Your confidence man
Believe! Cause I'm your confidence man, your confidence man
You're such gullible men, I'm still your confidence man
