

Feel It Again

Hanker

All of my life, fears of facing the end
So many times on my own
Working so hard doing the best I can
Talking so loud all alone

Bridge I:

I'm here once again
Still feel it in my veins
It's been hard to stand
Screaming has been worth the pain

All of my nights never getting the sense
So many lines have been wrong
Aiming so high never reaching the trends
Flying so far for so long

Bridge II:

I'm here once again
Still feel it in my brain
Disturbed? I'll take the chance
Screaming has been worth the pain

Chorus:

Feel it again
I've lost my soul
Fear it again
For I've lost control

All of my times never reaching the end
So many lines on my own
Thinking so hard playing the best I can
Screaming so loud all alone

Bridge III:

I'm here once again
My fears were all in vain
I feel proud again
Screaming has been worth the pain

Repeat Chorus twice
