Hanker

What have you done to my world again?
Where have you gone? Are you lost again?
Were all my words in vain?

Why have you put diamonds everywhere?
Why have you killed claiming I was fair?
This is not what I said
It's all in vain
Look closer! Closer!

So once again! My Kingdom ain't...

Over the skies, far above
Closer! Closer!
Above your lies there is love
In your heart on the inner side
I am still bleeding out for you

Where have you gone? You've got lost again
What have you done in His name again?
Was all my love in vain? And all my pain
It's closer! Closer!

Over the skies, far above
Closer! Closer!
Above your lies there is love
It's right in your heart!

It's right in your heart!
