

Who's Crying Loud?

Hanker

You have always been so shallow
You have always been so proud
You have ways of kings who follow rules
To toy with their crowd

Bridge:
Can't you see?
It ain't me...

Chorus:
Who's crying loud
You're crying loud
You're crying loud

Your mind's always been so narrow
We have always been so proud
Stealing everything no sorrow
Fooling people with your crown

Repeat Bridge

Repeat Chorus

Special:
You're crying loud!
You're crying loud!

You have always been so hollow
You have always seemed so proud
You've been hiding things, you follow fools
Destroying all around

Repeat Bridge

Final Chorus:
Who's crying loud
You're crying loud
You're crying loud
Loud! Loud! Loud! Too loud!
Loud! Loud! Loud! Too loud!
Loud! Loud! Loud! Too loud!
Loud! Loud! Loud! Too loud!
You're crying loud!
Too loud!
