

Maybe It's A Good Thing

Hanna Pakarinen

We don't talk lost connection
we're moving on
in the wrong direction
it seems too late to repatriate
just too hard to put back together

I think I've reached the end I'll always be your friend

So maybe it's a good thing
better in the long run
If I don't wanna lose you
I need to let you go now

Maybe it's a good thing
I'll set you free
And maybe you will realize
we belong together

So maybe it's a good thing

It's so damn hard to make the words
leave my mouth
you must be special
we make vows
to make it easy
so here's my plan
to make you need me

I'll say I've reached the end Always be my friend

So maybe it's a good thing...

Why does wrong seem right
And I don't know why love has brought me this fight
And I just wonder why

So maybe it's a good thing...
