

Stronger Without You

Hanna Pakarinen

Who are you to think that you own me
You say you care, I couldn't care less
So you know, I'm no one's possession
You thought you'd leave me in a mess

You can't hold me down

Now when I'm stronger without you
And I finally see we're thru
I know you think I'm weaker so
I'm going without you
Cause I'm stronger without you

I'll do fine, now and forever
Did not think twice of letting you go
Way to smart for you to control me
You took your path, so now I'll take mine

You can't hold me down

Now when I'm stronger without you
And I finally see we're thru
I know you think I'm weaker so
I'm going without you
Cause I'm stronger without you

I will not ever stand aside
And put my will on hold
So how can I be wrong

Won't be crying, save your breath cause I am
Stronger on my own

Now when I'm stronger without you
And I finally see we're thru
I know you think I'm weaker so
I'm going without you
Cause I'm stronger without you

I'm stronger without you
