

One And Many

Happy Rhodes

That I am one and many is at the heart of my dis-ease
Yet I am one and many

That I am one and many is at the heart of my dis-ease
Yet I am one and many

I am hindered, also warm
I am injured like a dog
I've been righteous, but never angry
Lately I am just cold like tundra

That I am one and many is at the heart of my dis-ease
Yet I am one and many

Can't stop flinching, really wanna need you
Wanna be in pictures, find an exit fast
Can't stop flinching, tell me that I'm ok
Driven for a future, clinging to the past

I make danger where there is none
Just to put me back in the fear
I am skilled now, at casting iron
To make a hardened bed for my heavy world

That I am one and many is at the heart of my dis-ease
Yet I am one and many

There are ten variations of me and each one is in peril
If I could guide their interactions, I'd never be alone again
That I am one and many, explains why I move sideways
When all I want to do is go forward

That I am one and many is at the heart of my dis-ease
Yet I am one and many

Can't stop flinching, really wanna need you
Wanna be in pictures , find an exit fast
Can't stop flinching, tell me that I'm ok
Driven for a future, clinging to the past

Can't stop flinching, really wanna need you
Wanna be in pictures, find an exit fast
Can't stop flinching, tell me that I'm ok
Driven for a future, clinging to the past

Can't stop flinching, really wanna need you
Wanna be in pictures, find an exit fast
Can't stop flinching, tell me that I'm ok
Driven for a future, clinging to the past

Can't stop flinching, everything is lethal
Looking for a hero to get me outta this
Can't stop flinching, tell me that you're ok
Looking for approval and one last kiss
