

Trapped in Muddy Waters

Hardline

Took me to the river
Rode me to the shore
Stole my precious water
And dried me to the bone

I had my everything, I was climbing on my head
In my world I was all like, yeah, yeah right, it's all right now
I wasn't looking for love and all the trouble that it takes
Why did I fall so down? Yeah

Woah, shiver and shake, how could I choose this road to take?
Here we go again, still got the blues in me
You dried me to the bone

I've got scars on my soul, it reigns in my hands
You stole my endless soul
Still trapped in muddy waters for you

Why is love so blind? Why did I let my heart rule?

How could I know? Oh, yeah yeah, aw yeah
Ain't no wait to the time when eyes only see black
When they should see gray, oh no

Woah, shiver and shake, how could I choose this road to take?
Here we go again, still got the blues in me
You dried me to the bone

I've got scars on my soul, it reigns in my hands
You stole my endless soul
Still trapped in muddy waters for you, yeah

Here we go again, still got the blues in me
You dried me to the bone

I've got scars on my soul, it reigns in my hands
You stole my endless soul
Still trapped in muddy waters for you, yeah
