

Run Wild

Hardwell

I remember how we use to be free
Listen to nothing but our feelings
Walked to the sound of our own drums beating
We locked ourselves away and tied up the beast
But we're only waiting for the moment to break free

Can you hear my heart howl at the sky
It's the wolf that I keep deep inside
I've been holding her back but tonight
Tonight we run wild

Tonight we run wild
Tonight we run wild

Tonight we run wild

Tonight we run wild

There is no denying what we're made of
See how your eyes reflect the moonlight
Feel how your instincts come back to life
Cause you can try your best to keep it locked down
But it's only waiting for the moment to break out

Can you hear my heart howl at the sky
It's the wolf that I keep deep inside
I've been holding her back but tonight
Tonight we run wild

Can you hear my heart howl at the sky
It's the wolf that I keep deep inside
I've been holding her back but tonight
Tonight we run wild

Tonight we run wild

Tonight we run wild
Tonight we run wild

Tonight we run wild
