

Caught Up In Your World

Harem Scarem

You have a way of fighting
Everything I do
And all your finger pointing
Is pointing back
Right back to you

Don't cha give me reasons
Don't cha give me lies
Just give me the truth
And let me decide
Let me decide

You're so far away
I can't reach you

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay but hard to leave you
I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay or walk away

Maybe I've been mistaken
Maybe I've been deceived
I'm lying next to a stranger
We're incomplete
Yeah, you and me

You're so far away
I can't reach you

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay but hard to leave you
I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay or walk away

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay but hard to leave you
I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay or walk away

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
It's hard to stay but hard to leave you
I don't get enough
But I won't give you up
It's hard to stay or walk away

Caught up in your world
I won't ever learn
