

Dreaming Awake

Harmony

I woke up in a dream
And I'm facing twisted shadows
On a journey through no man's land

No light is present
But still there's no sign of the dark
It's a place where no one's been before

I look ahead
I'm looking back
Standing at the east
Then towards the west
Still there's no sign to lead the way

Dreaming awake, please tell me
Will it ever end?
Fantasy or reality
Is this the end of my road?

I walk in my own footprints
Is this a land of eternal sand?
On a journey through no man's land

I'll wait for a sign
I pray for a way
I'm on my knees
Crying for relief
Take me away from this nightmare

Dreaming awake, please tell me
Will it ever end?
Fantasy or reality
Is this the end of my road?

Dreaming awake, please tell me
Will it ever end?
Fantasy or reality
Is this the end of my road?

Dreaming awake, Oh, now I know
This is true and real
Reality, not fantasy
I have to go through all of this

Dreaming awake, please tell me
Will it ever end?
Fantasy or reality
Is this the end of my road?

Dreaming awake, Oh, now I know
This is true and real
