

Lift your spirit

Harrison Craig

I see you down, I see you sad I see the tears, your holding hands a new story begins, where a long one ends believe me baby, you'll love again let me lift your spirit up, let me lift your spirit up, let me lift your spirit up tonight

I know this worlds, of ups and downs still your face first on the ground but we still break, and trees still bend give us faith, you've got a friend

let me lift your spirit, let me see you smile if you don't feel weary, I'll carry you a while let me lift you spirit, way up to the sky if there's a cloud I'll clear it, it breaks my heart to see you cry

before you walk, down the dark road we've gotta talk, and shift the road its hard to change, but I know you can if you need some help, then I'm your man

cry

let me lift your spirit up tonight
