Dayton, Ohio 1903

Sing a song of long ago when thing were green and movin' slow And people stopped to say hello and they'd say hi to you Would you like to come over for tea with the misses and me? It's a real nice way to spend a day in Dayton, Ohio on a lazy S unday afternoon in 1903.

Sing a song of long ago when things could grow and days flowed quietly The air was clean and you could see and folks were nice to you Would you like to come over for tea with the misses and me? It's a real nice way to spend a day in Dayton, Ohio on a lazy S unday afternoon in 1903.
