

September Lily

Hawksley Workman

september lily
come here and kiss me
september lily
why don't you kiss me?
that's an order

september lily
come here and kiss me
please think about me
but only the good things like a mother

and the truth of it is
i wonder am i beautiful enough
for you
to kiss me true

september lily
i see your dark side
i see the reasons
for all of your crying
but they're hidden

september lily
do you wanna marry me?
it could be simple
elope in a taxi
for the weekend

and the truth of it is
for you

but the truth of it is
for you
oh, to kiss me true

september lily
no ordinary
flower store lily
your fragrant and lovely like an ending

summer's gone and baby so are you
summer's gone and baby so are you
