

Dead and Gone

Heathen

Take me, break me
Split me in two
Dig me a new hole
And fill it with you

The love, the hate
Sorrow your seed
Plant it for me
In your garden of need

The darkness in your head
Lives with me, long since wed
Please kill me with your dread
And then pronounce me dead

Dead and gone
The broken one
You're dead and gone
The lifeless sun

Slice, dice me
I'll never tell
Cut me to pieces
Send me to hell

The love, the hate
Misery breeds
Bear it for me
In your womb of disease

The darkness in your head
Lives with me, long since wed
Please kill me with your dread
And then pronounce me dead

Dead and gone
The broken one
You're dead and gone
The lifeless sun

Solo: Kragen

You're dead
Dead and gone
The broken one
You're dead and gone
The lifeless sun
