

Executioner's Day

Heaven's Basement

Waiting for the day
Blue eyes change their shade
Walking in step just to buy back the life that I'd sold
Stuck in the middle I don't know which way I should go

Show me the way
Show me the way from here
Tell me the truth
Tell me your hopes and fears
Give me a sign
Give me a sign to stay
Is this how it ends?
I'm just waiting for the executioners day

Praying for a change
New skies are here to stay
Building it up just to have something new I can break
Pushing you down just to see how much more you can take

Show me the way
Show me the way from here
Tell me the truth
Tell me your hopes and fears
Give me a sign
Give me a sign to stay
Is this how it ends?
I'm just waiting for the executioners day
