When the fate is on our side When the finish is near you rise up to the sky

A part of him is born to ride to be the best - to pass the last Fast as hell - he will give his life he will do everything to win and to be No. 1, to be No. 1.

He's ready now soon the race will begin for him His life's passing by in front his eyes No one knows what's going on in his mind But I know and he know's that he might burn and will not return

No turning back
, cause the race is all you need
Don't try to stop him
he loves to take the risk
No turning back
, cause the winner's inside you
Don't try to stop him
Let his dream become real this time

To be No. 1, to be No. 1.

He's ready now soon the race will begin for him His life's passing by in front his eyes No one knows what's going on in his mind But I know and he know's that he might burn and will not return

No turning back
, cause the race is all you need
Don't try to stop him
he loves to take the risk
No turning back
, cause the winner's inside you
Don't try to stop him
Let his dream become real this time
Refrain 3

No turning back ,cause the race is all you need Don't try to stop him Let his dream become real this time
