Sign of the Winner

Heavenly

Lost in the sea, a man is searching for land. But an angel is guiding him, a superior force is showing him the way through his quest.

Sun be my guide Can you see where is the right side ? In my quest Which feels so hard I heard a voice Coming from the sky

Passing through the storm And find your land You have to be proud Follow your way

It comes the wind And the rain on my way But the sun has never shown me its light This kind of fear gives me force in my head The sign of the winner is in my eyes

Sea, magic sea Victory resounds to my mind Future is not so far The angel's voice calls me one more time

Passing through the storm And find your land You have to be proud Follow your way

It comes the wind And the rain on my way But the sun has never shown me its light This kind of fear gives me force in my head The sign of the winner is in my eyes

Wings of destiny follow the wind Wind of destiny follow your dreams

It comes the wind And the rain on my way But the sun has never shown me its light This kind of fear gives me force in my head The sign of the winner is in my eyes It comes the wind And the rain on my way But the sun has never shown me its light This kind of fear gives me force in my head The sign of the winner is in my eyes
