As Fire

Hecate Enthroned

Lies, In the end you can't disguise What awaits you all and I The truth is before your eyes The gates open wide Sinners, lost souls, bastards, join us now Why? Lead on by your faith, you're blind The secrets you've kept will blind You with the horde riding high Your fate lies with me Stand tall Slaughter, kill them all, blood on my hands Have no fear, as your death is nigh The waves of hate reigning down Man's wrath, as old as time Relish in blood of me No more Christian, no more Muslim Kill religion - Judaism Kill the mother and the father Kill the priest - holy man If you believe, that we are all sinners and going to hell As fire, raging, burning, hate runs through me Release thy demons
