

Could You Be Home

Heffron Drive

I got my head under water
Did you steal my thunder?
You steal my thunder
I've been lost in the mazes
My heart locked in cages
Unlock the cages

Cause I'm like a road
Like a road that needs paving
Just like a stone
Like a stone needing shaping
Don't care if it breaks my bones

Could you be home?
Could you be safety?
A place to rest my soul
Cause I've been on my own for too long
Don't leave it alone
Keep pushing on baby
Cause I've been losing hope
I've been losing
I've been bruised so
Could you be home, home
Could you be home
Could you be home

Sleeping, sleeping on benches
Lost in the trenches
You pull me from trenches

Cause I've been alone, been alone
I've been taken
Just like a ghost
Like a ghost reawakened
Don't care if it breaks my bones

Could you be home?
Could you be safety?
A place to rest my soul
Cus I've been on my own for too long
Don't leave it alone
Keep pushing on baby
Cause I've been losing hope
I've been losing
I've been bruised so
Could you be home, home
Could you be home
Could you be home

Ahhhh, ooooo, could you be home, yaahhh

Could you be home?
Could you be safety?
A place to rest my soul
Cus I've been on my own for too long
Don't leave it alone
Keep pushing on baby

Cus I've been losing hope
I've been losing
I've been bruised so
Could you be home, home
Could you be home
Could you be home
