

Ballad of the Queen

Heimdall

Why did you find rest here on my shores?
Why did your words light the flame in my heart?
You enemies will be the same that have loved you till tonight
Why are you fleeing taking my soul to distant suns?

Hear the ballad of the queen
A melody of pain
Hear my memories and dreams
Hate - for the years to come

I was so foolish to hear your words
The same that now are as cold as blades
Your friends will be your enemies
And the sun will start to cry
Hate will domain between our mates
I swear it to the stars

Hear the ballad of the queen
A melody of pain
Hear my memories and dreams
Hate - for the years to come
Hear the ballad of the queen
A melody of cry
Hear my memories and dreams
Damned - for the years to come

The flames burns on into my heart
It does go on... I must stop it
Cold friend, free me under the stars
And give me peace, give me peace,
Give me peace...
