

Under The Silent Moon

Heimdall

"Father, look to these mountains...
There is snow, ice everywhere
Look to these lakes and the blood river...
Their waters are sad and still"

UNDER THE SILENT MOON... UNDER THE SILENT MOON

"Hear the cry of nature... Night reigns on her black throne
All the land is under a terrible spell of eternal frost"

UNDER THE SILENT MOON... UNDER THE SILENT MOON

"Brave son, these are the signs - The time of tears and dark is coming
Messengers of death and despair - Shadows are seizing our lands
It is the time for us to fight - Eternal light calls us to rise
