

Collide

Helalyn Flowers

Where everything is worthless
I'm feeling cold and distant
I saw you trying to protect me
Like a broken gas mask

Shaking world - burning skies

Don't you see that I feel alive
Standing on a broken line?
'cause every time I live in chains
I'm dead-walking machine
Ready to collide

Blow my shadow
Drown in my reflection
Ready to collide
And waiting to fall
Wasted time
Is bleeding like an arrow
And is killing you inside

Blow my shadow
Drown in my reflection
Ready to collide
And waiting to fall
Wasted time
Is bleeding like an arrow
And is killing you inside

So many time awake and
Addicted to disorder

Shaking world - burning skies

Don't you see that I feel alive
Standing on a broken line?
'cause every time I live in chains
I'm dead-walking maschine
Ready to collide

Blow my shadow
Drown in my reflection
Ready to collide
And waiting to fall
Wasted time
Is bleeding like an arrow
And is killing you inside

Blow my shadow
Drown in my reflection
Ready to collide
And waiting to fall
Wasted time
Is bleeding like an arrow
And is killing you inside

Wasted time

Is bleeding like an arrow
Blow my shadow
Ready to collide
Wasted time
