

Everyday

Helena Zeťová

I know nothing but I've got this feeling
This feel when I touch my lover side
Why am I so scared of a leaving?
Why have you tend and close your eyes

And I want to know
Is our love prepare to fight this quietland world

Everyday we have to fight them
Everyday we have to be them
Everyday it would like to just grow
Every night I need your shoulder
Every night I need a cover
Every night, everyday
Tell me it will be o.k.

I know nothing but I've got this feeling
This feel when I see this world outside
Do you think about leaving?
I did not tell you, the world's collide

And I want to know
Will this love be able to take us to the show

Everyday we have to fight them
Everyday we have to be them
Everyday it would like to see us fall
Every night I need your shoulder
Every night I need a cover
Every night, everyday
Tell me it will be o.k.

So save here by your side
So we live and fight
They like to watch us grow

Everyday we must be stronger
Everyday no doubt surrender
Every night, everyday
Tell me it will be o.k.
