

Overcome Yourself

Helia

Believe there's no belief on a dusty path
Trust there is no truth written on a misguiding map.
You'll never get what you've gained, there is a lesson learned with pride and pain.

You've became captive by your hollow past,
And you can't see any light in this endless chaos.

There is another sky even serene and fair.
Shell out tears for everything you've never seen the light.
They say "Now it's time to pay!"
Shell out tears for everything rise, conquer, hold tight.

We are the rope between, God and beast.
Look down to the abyss, there's no end but a simple bridge.
Look down to the abyss, there's no end but a bridge!

There is another sky even serene and fair.
Shell out tears for everything you've never seen the light.
They say "Now it's time to pay!"
Shell out tears for everything rise, conquer, hold tight.

See this world from here and tell me
Why It seems so wrong? it seems so foul..
Now try look inside the deep space
It seems so wild...but it seems so pure.

There is another sky even serene and fair.
Shell out tears for everything you've never seen the light.
They say "Now it's time to pay!"
Shell out tears for everything rise, conquer, hold tight.

See this world from here and tell me
why It seems so wrong? it seems so foul..
Now try look inside the deep space
It seems so wild...but it seems so pure.
