

Fight

Helker

Trust the scorpion said to me
Trust me said the snake
One drop in the sea of lies
Pushing me to the cliff

You see their faces smiling in every corner
The wheels of emptiness are rolling again

You must fight!
You must fight for yourself
There will be no help, you are on your own
You must fight!
You must fight for yourself
Open your eyes and you will understand

Playing with your sanity
Waiting for the new blow
Erasing my identity
Numbers in control

You see their faces smiling in every corner
The wheels of emptiness are rolling again

You must fight!
You must fight for yourself
There will be no help, you are on your own
You must fight!
You must fight for yourself
Open your eyes and you will understand

Selfish, greedy, blind and soulless shutting themselves
Mine is mine and yours is mine too it seems to be the way
Trapped in the spider web we are losing our souls
Speculators, dragging you to hell

You must fight!
You must fight for yourself
You must fight!
You must fight for yourself
You must fight!
You must fight for yourself
You must fight!
You must fight for yourself

You must fight!
