

For All the Eternity

Helker

Welcome to the sadness
Welcome to the rage
Welcome to the masquerade
Welcome to the lies

So, you took advantage of the innocent
Spreading all your bullshit and your misery
Playing to be wise and playing to be a friend
Pretending to be decent but, stealing all you can

At the time of my life I will see you cry
Hear my words, you'll be damned
For all the eternity

You sell a world of wonders
A world of fame
You sell a world of colors
A world of blame

Pride and more pride is all you have
A king of nothing, a king of shame
