

Leaving out the Ashes

Helker

You're my best friend
And I know, I see it in your eyes
You're in pain and
Now I know, you need me by your side

The road is hard but you're not alone
If you let me, I'll be there
There's no need to hide your fear no more
No more lies, no more games

You're my best friend, you're my best friend
Life is to decide
We will make it
Trust in me and I will be your guide
Take my hand
Oh please take my hand

Now we'll change your world, we'll face the cold;
We are leaving out the ashes
Now we'll bring the hope to your soul,
Standing up just you and me
We are leaving out the ashes
Now we'll bring the hope to your soul,
Standing up just you and me
