

Come Alive

Hell or Highwater

i know you see the signs of the doldrums creeping in the distance and i hope you fear the sound as the thunder rolls skeletons march through fields a fire to find what they've been missing i follow the sound of broken bones to find some clarity of my own i cant seem to see through this fog but i don't seem to care i wanna get lost

i wanna get gone go far away from here i feel a million things but not a single one of them is fear all i know is i cant spend another day in here all these things are stacked around me brick by brick these walls surround me i cant wait till i can get back to the place where everyday isn't wasted all my life i've been looking for the chance to come alive all these things i hate about this haven't changed since yesterday so lets face it id be dead if i didn't take the chance to come alive im far from complacent

im running out im breaking down
brick by brick these walls surround me

all my life i've been looking for the chance to come alive
all these things i hate about this haven't changed since yesterday so lets face it
id be dead if i didn't take the chance to come alive
