

Rocky Waters Edge

Hell or Highwater

Little one
I know I've been away to long
When all thats right seems wrong
What can I say?
I'll take the pain that comes along with days gone by
Cuz every tear we cry
Brings another day

I've been thinking of how you make me feel
So in love
I've been waning so bad to make this right
It's time I say

We've been chasing the tides
Down at rocky waters edge
I see dark clouds on the horizon coming in

Lonely ones
We haven't been ourselves for to long
But still our hearts beat strong
What can I say?
Through all of this you hung around
To see this through
It's obvious
You where made for me and me for you

I've been thinking of how you make me feel
So in love
I've been waning so bad to make this right
It's time I say
