

Bleeding Me Black

Hell Within

breathe in the scent of fruitless bloodlust
sadist

the innocence bled from loveless malice infidelity has brought us full circle i could dress myself in your skin you narcissistic whore i'd rather walk away from this than wear the scorn of many {chorus}

she sang
she sang to me softly
the copper taste of roses bless my hands

i'm not healing
i'm just living with your ghost desecrating
my life, my will eternal death

one last regret of a life so hollow burnt to embers
the maniacal spark
fuel the catalyst
bringing death to life
my conscience dead forever

whore

{chorus}

i left my heart
open for you to tear away the drawbridge closing no more can i keep the wolves at bay we're fused as one in death as life returns to ashes i'm drowning in the wake as futile reason crashed they rape us of our soules

i will hate you forever

die
