

Bloody Torture

Hellion

Prepare your mind for pain and suffering
As I sharp my ax to cut your throat
I'm offering your soul in sacrifice
To the lords of darkness, you've betrayed

Get on your knees
This is the end

Praying will not help you to escape
The chains keep you under my domain
Feel the knife ripping your flesh
Feel the razor's edge in your veins

Get on your knees
The bloody torture has come

I feel pleasure when I see you cry
Betrayal is paid with pain
Your cries of desperation make me laugh
There is no salvation for your soul

See my red eyes full of hate
And look at your back and tell me what you see
It's the death with her sharpened oz
Came from beyond to give the final cut

No time to repent
Cause now you're dead
