

You know we could have had a daughter and we could have named her Anna
And she would have been a sweetheart but with punk rock manners

Could have supported us when we retire, bought us a cottage near the countryside

You could have taught her to play hockey
I could have taught her the guitar
And her granddad could show her the way to the bar

cottage near the countryside

We would have made the neighbours jealous
We could have had barbecues at nights
With our collected brain resource she would have an IQ of 155

Could have supported us when we retire, bought us a
cottage near the countryside

She would have won the Nobel Prize and thanked her mama for all the good advice And we could have gone swimming near that cottage by the lake
And she'd never had to know what it's like when your heart breaks

When your heart breaks

When your heart breaks

When your heart breaks
When your heart breaks

cottage near the countryside
Could have supported us when we retire, bought us a
cottage near the countryside

She would have married a Kennedy
She would have found the cure for HIV

Well I'm real sorry Anna you never got to be Cause your daddy moved on and he left me

Could have supported us when we retire, bought us a
cottage near the countryside
