Speechless

Helmet

Indecisive and deaf or dumb Tongue dried in the sun Nervous speech and your mental health Drunk on every detail

Loosened up from the moral slide
As though there's nothing to hide
It corresponds with your secret view
And never weighs upon you

I'd blame someone but I've got you Like everyday that bores me Sleep fine at night and wake up to My early speechless morning

I'd blame someone but I've got you Like everyday that bores me Sleep fine at night and wake up to My early speechless morning

It works like crime, adjust your view Waste of time improving
She's cut so well and life like too
You'll bleed to death before me
