The Fuhrer has a master race The rest will have to go There's a sinister smile upon his face In his eyes an evil glow Death is written in the cards Six million soon to die They'll be tortured by the SS guards Don't bother asking why Arrested by the Gestapo And crammed into the trains They sent them off to ghettos It all seemed so deranged They look all possession And took away all pride, they filled up all the gas chambers And called it genocide The Abomination With all its Pestilent Dreams Will wallow in the darkness And relish your every scream Mass termination is the final solution

They will start interogations
To suppress retaliations
From the victims of the new society
There is only mass confusion
Behind the Fuhrer grand illusion
There's no end to his monstrosity
Everywhere there's trepidation
Dare not speak against your nation
Or death will be your fate
Either join the grand regime
Or step into the death machine
Should you die or learn to hate

Aushwitz. Dachau
Just another name for hell
The nazis run them all
And have learned to do it well
Systematic killing was their only way to go
They tried to hoot them one by one
But found that much too slow
They threw the babies in the furnance
And left the old ones out to die
The ingenious lunatic
Rules a kingdomm that is blind
